

Devotions – May 3-9, 2020

By Dave Mason

Friends, I received an e-mail from a gospel group "The Martins". I would like to quote from the article:

"The precious Word of God is filled with many wonderful promises."

Dr. Herbert Lockyer wrote the book which is all about the promises of the Bible. He claims there are over 8,000 promises.

Thirty-six years after his passing, his writings continue to make an impact. In facing the realities of COVID-19, it's easy to become discouraged, anxious and even feel somewhat alone. It's important to cling to those 8,000 promises that fill God's Word. My devotions this week will include each day a Bible passage for you to meditate and pray on. Share with others and I ask you to "Wear Kindness" wherever you go.

Text: Psalm 46:1-2a; 10-11

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear,
even though the earth be removed...
“Be still and know that I am God!
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!”
The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Text: Matthew 11:28-30

Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

And David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord God - my God - will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished al the work for the service of the house of the Lord.”
