THE FUTURE OF....

YOUTH MINISTRY AND PASTORAL MINISTRY IN THIS SYNOD

Bishop Thomas A. Skrenes

tskrenes@nglsynod.org

Earlier this year, the Northern Great Lakes Synod Council appointed two task forces to reflect on, and plan for, the future of specific ministries in this Synod. As a part of our strategic planning for the future, these task forces will meet this year and will bring reports to the Synod Council in January 2010.

The Youth Ministry Task Force consists of several Council members along with the Synod Youth Ministries Support Team. As we gather we will ask ourselves:

- ◆ What should be priorities for Synod youth and family ministry in this Synod?
- ◆ What parts of Synod youth ministry have been successful in the past few years?
- ◆ What parts of Synod youth ministry have not been successful?
- ◆ How does the changing demographics of Sunday School, confirmation ministry, and our congregations in general influence our Synod youth ministry?
- ◆ What more could we accomplish if we had more staff time by a youth and family coordinator to work in our Synod?
- ◆ How would youth ministry happen in our Synod if we had no dedicated staff time to this work?
- ◆ Could Finlandia University, Fortune Lake Bible Camp and Lutheran Campus Ministry be a bigger part of our youth and family work?
- ◆ Where is God leading us as a Synod in this area?

The Synod Task Force on Ministry includes several Synod Council members and the Leadership Support Committee of our Synod. We will meet this summer and fall and struggle with these questions:

- ◆ How can the Synod encourage the continuing education and professional development of our pastoral leaders?
- ◆ How do we foster a sense of community and collegiality in our ministers?
- ◆ What would best assist new pastoral leaders in their responsibilities?

- ◆ What has worked well? What has not?
- ◆ How effective has been our Synod's work with "Project Hope" and the "Sabbath Project"?
- ◆ What budget considerations need to be made over the next years as our Synod plans ahead?
- ◆ Where is God leading us as a Synod in this area?

Please think about these areas. I welcome your thoughts and comments on both youth and family ministry and clergy leadership ministries in our Synod. Let me know about your hopes and dreams. Email me at tskrenes@nglsynod.org

Out of all of this may come - renewal. I have used "The Four Pillars" for several years now to define the four major emphases of our work together as a Synod. These pillars help me to articulate a vision for the calling and responsibilities of the Northern Great Lakes Synod:

+Sharing the Faith+Renewing Congregations*+Supporting this Ministry*+Strengthening our Leaders

*Excerpt from a letter written by Pastor
Virginia Eggert, Faith Lutheran Church, Ishpeming*

Thank you for your help, your prayers and your generous response to the victims and evacuees of the Black River Falls fire (Ishpeming) on May 20. The fire was devastating. Over 7,000 acres burned, 500 people were evacuated, 33 structures destroyed, and 12 families "lost everything". Our church was the first evacuation site and, later, as people were evacuated again to Westwood High School, we were the "command center" for fire, police, rescue workers, the Salvation Army Disaster Response mobile unit, and a refueling stop for the fire trucks. Everyone has a memory, everyone has a story of that first night. Families trying to locate each other met at the church. Once the evacuation was in full swing, the LA freeways had nothing over the traffic crawling along 581 heading away from the fire. Pickup trucks with dogs in the back and cats in the cabs. Vans. Sedans. An earth mover. And, after the family cars came the parade of convertibles and restored historic cars. Some people left only moments ahead of the flames. Our church was used for the next five days as a refuge for police and fire fighters needing clean, indoor restrooms and a green spot to rest their weary eyes. One sheriff's deputy told me that 90% of the fire fighters were still out there on the job – four days later!

For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the

*God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory

2 Corinthians 4

Last February it seemed like a good idea, but the Sunday afternoon of June 28th as I rolled into Fortune Lake Camp where I would serve as the camp pastor for a week, I was aware that I was going to be forced to take a step or two outside of my comfort zone. It was Victory Camp week which means that Fortune Lake Camp was filled with special needs adults.

Now, one might think that having raised two special needs kids into their adulthood would have sufficiently stretched that corner of my comfort zone to easily include a week at something like Victory Camp. Not true! I'll be honest - I was anxious - how would it be to be in relationship with a diversity of special needs adults? I was uncomfortable - what kinds of behaviors might I witness or be expected to manage? I was fearful - what if they asked me a question I couldn't answer? I was uneasy - what if I appeared foolish?

Well, many of the Victory Campers did ask me two common questions:

- ◆ Where are you a pastor? Where is your church? Answer: I don't serve in a church. I am a pastor in the Synod Office.
- ◆ What do you do? Answer: (Hem and haw! Stutter and sputter! Change the subject!)

What in the world do I do??? I'll bet there are others who are wondering too! The week I was at camp, I wanted to have a GOOD answer the next time a Victory Camper asked me this question. I settled on this response: "I tell others about Jesus and help others tell others about Jesus." And, then I would always add: "You can too!" To a camper, when they asked me this question and I responded with this invitation, they would say, "Sure, I can talk about Jesus."

The Victory Campers were great teachers that week. They were not perfect. There was much that was challenging. But, they were wonderful teachers instructing me and all the staff to discover the joy of the moment, to laugh with a big heart, to sing with a big voice, to share the gifts you've been given and embrace the gifts God pours out.

What in the world (or, what in the mission field all around you) are you doing to tell others about Jesus and help others tell others about Jesus?

Blessings!

“And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work.” (2 Corinthians 9:8, NRSV)

God has provided abundantly as we finish the first half of 2009 with mission support gifts totaling $9,710 above those received by this time last year. Thank you to all our congregations who have given so generously. As summer winds down, may we continue to trust that God will provide for all we need as we work together to share the love of Christ with our neighbors.
