“side by side . . . growing in faith toward God and love toward neighbor”

Ecumenism—A Joyful Community

God is always at work in our lives.

I recently came across a quote from Josiah Gilbert Holland:

“God gives every bird its food, but He does not throw it into the nest.”

This quote has reminded me of the joys of working together ecumenically throughout our communities. Yes, God does provide for us...more than we could ever understand. However, God also asks us to get out and about—to share in the gathering, harvesting, and feeding of our spiritual selves and others. He doesn’t want us to simply 'hunker down' inside a cozy nest and be content. We are called to not be ‘ lukewarm’ in our faith, but to get up, get on fire and work together in the name of Christ Jesus.

I’ve been overjoyed in working through various ecumenical events in our greater community. Groups such as: Cooperative Campus Ministries of MTU and Finlandia, have opened doors in conversation and in walking together. We’ve walked together in Progressive Dinners and in identifying those students in need and those students seeking out various places to worship and discern their identities in faith.

The Life Outreach Center has worked ecumenically to safely reach out to counsel and mentor people in issues of pregnancy.

Also, recently an opportunity came for an Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church. Pr. Amy Terhune from the Methodist church gave the message for the day. Many local churches and individuals participated/attended, and Finlandia University was also represented well. There was a wonderful reception following the event and all were welcome and encouraged to attend.

It is gatherings such as those, that have brought a smile to my face and an encouraged spirit to continue in God’s work and God’s calling to stretch out my hand and help to guide others to do the same, so that we may all show forth Christ in our example and our actions.

Gracious Lord,
Continue to guide us in working ecumenically and share your love with our many brothers and sisters in Christ. Use us to help grow your kingdom. Encourage us to leave our ‘nests’ to bring your joy to others. Amen.

All Finlandia University students and employees were invited to the Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church. Pr. Amy Terhune from the Methodist church gave the message for the day.

Celebrating Martin Luther

Martin Luther became 527 years old this year on Wednesday, November 10th. Finlandia celebrated Martin’s Birthday throughout the day through many smaller events.

In Chapel, we discussed Luther’s Small Catechism and sang some of his songs. University Singers (choir class) spent the day harmonizing “A Mighty Fortress Is Our God”…#’s 504 & 505 in the ELW. Finlandia Campus Ministry also gave up some tasty luncheon ‘Lutheran’ treats for the community to enjoy, such as: ‘Diet of Worms’ (dirt pudding cake), Tatertot Casserole, Green Bean Casserole, tons of Red Jell-O, Gummi worms galore, and good ‘ol strong Lutheran coffee with other refreshments.

PRAYER: Personal, Persistent, Powerful

Pauline Kiltinen
Northern Great Lakes Synod Vice President
Member, St. Mark’s Lutheran Church, Marquette, Michigan

PERSONAL PRAYERS

My personal prayer life is not something to brag about. Until perhaps five years ago, prayers for me took place at predictable times and occasions: during church services, before meals, at meetings of church groups. I learned the Lord’s Prayer as a child, have said it hundreds of times, and probably will always start with “Our Father, WHO ART in heaven.”

However, about five years ago, I was involved in a huge undertaking, that of leading the planning for Finn Grand Fest 2005 in Marquette. It’s the kind of project one enthusiastically but perhaps innocently says yes to, only to realize that if there are thousands of people coming, there are multiple thousands of details to take care of in order to insure the happiness of all attendees. Overwhelming, yes. Do-able, yes as well. But only with help.

Help there was, from a wonderful and hard-working steering committee, and from many volunteers. But for me, there was also another kind of help, a kind of sustaining current that came from conversations with God. I’ll call them prayers. It was like tapping into a source of energy, a feeling of calm and confidence.

One constant prayer was very simple: “O Lord, shower your blessings on Finn Grand Fest.” Other prayers were more specific, often questions and requests like “What is the best to follow here? Help me to think clearly.” And some prayers happened as I was on my way to a meeting, with a quick “Guide my thinking and my words, Lord.”

Praying during that time was a quiet anchor in my life, and for the most part, Finn Grand Fest 2005 turned out well. Whew! Prayers answered! Thank you, Lord!

PERSISTENT PRAYERS

Having had all this positive experience with praying, it occurred to me that I could continue to “use” this source of “sisu” and wisdom in my life, even for the mundane events of daily living. Daily life can toss some pretty difficult things our way, however, so that sometimes a minor event becomes long-term and life-altering. Praying is a way to deal with changes.

So, in recent years, my prayers have been more attuned to discernment and understanding. Words like this abound: “Lord, help me to see what is happening here, to consider all aspects, to know what to do, or to say.” Over and over I say this prayer. I know people who have developed a daily devotional time, a time they keep without fail to read the Bible, to ponder devotional materials, and to pray. This habit, once started, has persisted in their lives, and has lent rock-solid faith and substance to their life-style.

POWERFUL PRAYERS

It is to these prayer-oriented people that I have often gone to ask “Keep us in your prayers about such and such”, or “Would you ask a special blessing for so and so.” A kind of personal prayer partner.

How valuable this person is. Someone who cares enough to pray for us. Of course, God cares for us, too, gives us the grace and strength to carry on when we falter. And a prayer partner is a flesh and blood representative of our loving God.

My husband, John, and I attended a two-day Northern Great Lakes Synod Prayer Retreat recently. One of the activities was an “Out and About” short prayer journey into the neighborhood. Some of us walked, pausing to pray here and there. And some like us drove to places to pray. With us was a woman who impressed me so with the ease with which she prayed, as easily as if she were talking to a good friend. She knew her Lord. She would be a good prayer partner.

WINDING UP

Often when I pray these days, I’ll compose a list of names and finish with:

Be with and Bless them.

Guide and Protect them.

With your love, with your strength, with your wisdom, Lord.

Now, the above three lines have a melody in my head to go with them, and someday it may all appear in a song, or in a new liturgy. You never know where your prayers may lead you.

There is so much to say about praying: how and when to do it, what effect it has on us and on others, much more. God hears our prayers. Answers come, sometimes awe-somely! Keep on Praying!

A blessed
Christmas
and New Year to all!
TRANSITIONS

+Congratulations to Pastor Lloyd Luedeman (Bethany, Mohawk) on his call to serve Prince of Peace in Eagle River, Wisconsin. Pastor Luedeman begins his work in Eagle River in late November. A Service of Installation is scheduled for December 5, 2010.

+God bless Pastor LaVonne Stephenson who, earlier this year, left her ministry as pastor of Our Redeemer in Newberry. Pastor Stephenson goes on leave from call to spend more time with her husband, George.

+We pray that an abundance of God’s comfort and consolation be given to:

Pastor Lee Goodwin and his family as they mourn the death of his mother, Mary Goodwin, who died on November 8, 2010.

Pastor Bonny Kinnunen (First, Iron River) whose mother, Ruth Kinnunen, died on November 11, 2010.

Tim Mulvaney (First, Trenary) and his family as they mourn the death of Tim’s father whose funeral was held on October 26, 2010.

+God bless the family of Pastor Terry A. Berg who died on November 14, 2010. Ordained in 1972, Pastor Berg served at First Lutheran in Dollar Bay as his first call.

+Welcome, Luke Charles Skrenes! Luke was born on November 16, 2010, and is the grandson of Bishop Tom and Luanne Skrenes. All are doing well. Thanks be to God! We also pray for Bishop Skrenes as he continues a six-week sabbatical that it will be a time of rest and renewal. While there will be several days that he will be present at meetings and worship during the sabbatical, the great majority of it will be time spent in sabbatical reading and other projects apart from the day to day responsibilities of the Bishop’s office.
Thank You!

THE LAY SCHOOL FOR MISSION AND PASTOR KARLO KELJO

Recently, we received word of the death of Pastor Karlo Keljo. I came to know Pastor Keljo as pastor, a scholar, and a friend. In retirement, Pastor Keljo accepted a challenge - to build an education enterprise for lay persons in the Northern Great Lakes Synod - something we call the “Lay School for Mission.”

In the late 1980’s, Pastor Keljo began the Lay School in his home in Harvey. From these humble beginnings grew the network of sites that now operate around the Synod. Over 200 have graduated over the years from the Lay School. My own congregation has 12 graduates, and more on the way. What an incredible gift to the Synod - graduates who have gone on to greater involvement in the ministry of their congregations, to serve as Licensed Lay Ministers, even to seminary and ordination. I offer God thanks for Pastor Keljo and for the gifts he left us in the Lay School for Mission!

As I offer these thanks, I also offer you the opportunity to be a part of the Lay School experience, and to encourage others in our congregation to this venture. Think of your congregation filled with people with enhanced skills and excitement for ministry!

+ FROM THE ASSISTANT TO THE BISHOP +

PASTOR JENNIFER JOHNSON WREGE

And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.

Luke 1:28-33

I don’t know about you, but I’m thinking God is working in a rather intense, physical, and concrete way in Mary’s life as part of God’s way of working to bring salvation to the world.

How is God working in your life?

When I heard this question being asked by Pastor Gene Wickman on Sunday morning at the very beginning of worship at Grace Lutheran Church in Pembine, Wisconsin, I thought to myself, “Will I be surprised if anyone responds to that question in front of everyone in worship.” But, even before I finished this thought, Pastor Gene was calling on the first person who raised their hand wanting to share.

Those of us gathered for worship at Grace Lutheran that Sunday morning heard one family give thanks to God for a particularly good weekend at Fortune Lake Bible Camp. We heard another worshipper give thanks for the healing taking place in the health of a family member. We listened as another gave thanks for a sign of God’s grace in safe travel.

What we all heard were witness stories – stories that bear witness to the presence and activity of God in people’s lives. And, it was inspiring to listen to worshippers eagerly tell all of us about how they see God at work in their lives. It also continues to be a helpful nudge to be alert and aware and awake (Advent themes!) of how God is at work in my life.

How is God working in your life?

It’s always a good question! It seems especially appropriate for us to reflect and ponder this question during the season of Advent.

Blessings!

Thank you to those congregations whose gifts provided an excellent October of mission support giving ($98,287). Both calendar and fiscal year giving are now at 1997 levels. Designated gifts are 20% above 2009, due primarily to increased giving to the ELCA Disaster Fund, Fortune Lake, and undesignated gifts to the ELCA. In this season of thanksgiving, may we all remember and trust that God’s blessings are abundant!

Please note these closing dates:

January 13, 2011 - Last day for checks to arrive in the Synod Office so that 2010 benevolence gifts are credited to 2010.

February 14, 2011 - Last day for checks to arrive in the Synod Office so that January 2011 gifts can be credited to Synod fiscal year.
